144. THE KEY TO MULTIPLICATION The primary purpose of this book is to help the reader appropriate biblical truths with simplicity, so that it can be reproduced in the lives of their disciples. One of the key things that stands out to make the Bible different from any other books is "faith". Without it, the Scriptures would be wothless and the lives of its writters senseless. These people became great, because they trusted God although all the circumstances were unfavorable. The truths found in this book have been revealed to Pastor Castellanos. He has experienced these effective principles first hand and now shares them with you through this resource.
